

My Best Friend David

Chapter 1

Don't read this if you shouldn't and always practice safe sex. Enjoy!

I met him the first week of high school. We were in most classes together. We were both 13. He was about 5'7" and had dirty blond hair with lots of summer sun streaks. David was built like a swimmer. I was also thin and about the same height with jet black hair and brown eyes.

David was friendly and outgoing and we quickly became good friends. We were in class with each other most of the day...including gym class last period. The first gym class was amazing. While playing basketball, I noticed as I was guarding him that he had only a light dusting of hair on his arms and legs. We were playing shirts and skins. He was one of the skins. I saw the small wisp of blond hair under his arm as he tried to block my shot.

David guarded me close. I felt his hand on my back and occasionally his pelvis bumping my hip. I returned the favor. I loved the feeling of my hand resting on his sweaty back. Coach blew his whistle and we all headed to the locker room. The coach told us that we were all required to take a shower after gym class.

I was across the locker room from David. As I was removing my sweat soaked tee shirt and shorts, I was watching David undress. The whiteness of his smooth bubble butt was in sharp contrast to the deep tan of his back and legs. As he slid off his jockstrap, he turned to me and asked if I wanted to ride the bus home to his house. He said he could get his older sister to take me home later.

It was everything I could do to keep making eye contact with him. My eyes kept wandering to his 3" penis dangling and small dark brown pubic bush. His scrotum was drawn up tight because of the chill in the room. His penis was draped over a round ball sack. I could not believe it but I started to feel some tingling in my jockstrap. I quickly snapped out of it and said yeah that would be great.

David said to hurry up and get in the shower or we would miss the bus. As I followed him to the huge gang shower, I wondered how I would keep from getting hard.

When I got to my shower, David was right next to me. His body was so hot. I was starting to chub. Fortunately the water in his shower suddenly got cold and he backed into me trying to get out of it. We both started laughing about it and quickly rinsed off and headed back to the locker room.

At David's house we just shot some hoops and talked about what a pain it was being freshman. His sister took me home.

That night as I undressed for bed, I just got naked and turned out the lights. I lay on top of the covers and started to imagine David naked on his bed. I tried to imagine his hard cock and his hand gently stroking it as I was stroking mine. I imagined the pressure starting to build as he slowly stroked his rock hard cock. I thought about what that must be feeling like for David. It was so real. I thought I heard him moan as a mind blowing climax started to build. It was like I could feel the cum building up inside of him and his being on the verge of exploding. I imagined him arching his back as the first wave of his orgasm washed over him. His mouth open in the shape of an O and his breathing ragged. It was then that I felt a drop land on my chin and heard my own ragged breathing. The super intense climax that I imagined for David was actually happening to me. The next blast of cum landed on my shoulder. It was the most powerful orgasm I had ever experienced.

As my breathing settled back to normal, I drifted into a deep sleep stark naked on top of my covers. The pools of cum slowly dried during the night all over my face and chest leaving their crusty evidence.

I did not set my alarm. When my father did not hear me getting ready for school he came to wake me up. I was still lying on top of my covers naked with the evidence of the jack off session from last night still on my chest. My cock was rock hard and standing proud at 5". He looked at me smiling and shook me awake.

I awoke with a start. He could see that I was starting to panic. He just smiled and said not to worry. As he fingered the crusted cum on my chin, he said it must have been quite a night. I noticed that he was only wearing boxers and that they were slightly tented. He said I should cover up because my mom might come in.
